Peaceful Settlement of Border Dispute

The group of Seven Plus (g7+) The g7+ proudly pays tribute to the Republics of Liberia, Sierra Leone, and Guinea for their remarkable achievement in peacefully resolving their border dispute. This decisive act of diplomacy reflects visionary leadership, courage, wisdom, and an unwavering commitment to dialogue — the very principles at the heart of the g7+ mission.

The peoples of these nations share more than borders — they share deep cultural, historical, and social ties. By safeguarding peace and fostering cooperation through the Mano River Union, they have strengthened the foundation for lasting stability, prosperity, and regional development.

This peaceful resolution shines as a beacon of hope — not only for the g7+ community, but for a world too often divided by conflict. It demonstrates that nations that have endured the hardships of war possess a unique capacity for reconciliation, dialogue, and harmonious coexistence.

The g7+ applauds the steadfast commitment of the peoples and leaders of Liberia, Sierra Leone, and Guinea to good neighborliness and collective progress. Their leadership reminds us of all that peace is both a shared responsibility and a shared success.
